Message from Mr. Cooper:

Hello Valley families and welcome to March, or is it summer already?

While we certainly have been having some incredibly mild, almost late spring weather, please continue to check the forecast each morning with your child and help them make appropriate clothing choices. Speaking of clothing, we have an incredible assortment of recently discarded and unclaimed winter wear, enough to clothe many children of various sizes, from head to toe. Please scan the attached pictures to see if anything looks familiar and encourage your child to collect their items ASAP.

Have a wonderful week of creating lasting family memories and we look forward to seeing the students again on the 18th.

Mr. Cooper
